KHE includes Kaplan's domestic postsecondary education businesses, made up of fixed-facility colleges and online postsecondary and career prograr KHE also includes the domestic professional training and other continuing education businesses.

In September 2012, KHE announced a plan to consolidate its market presence at certain of its fixed-facility campuses. Under this plan, KHE ceased nenrollments at nine ground campuses as it considered alternatives for these locations, and is in the process of consolidating operations of four other campuses into existing, nearby locations. Revenues at these campuses represented approximately 4% of KHE's total revenues in 2012. In the fourth quarter of 2012, KHE also began implementing plans to consolidate other facilities and reduce its workforce. In connection with these and other plans, incurred $2.6 million and $11.6 million in total restructuring costs in the second quarter and first six months of 2013, respectively, compared to $3.8 mill severance costs for the second quarter and first six months of 2012. For the second quarter of 2013, these costs included accelerated depreciation ($: million), severance ($0.6 million) and lease obligation losses ($0.6 million). For the first six months of 2013, these costs included accelerated depreciation ($: 0.0 million), severance ($1.4 million), lease obligation losses ($4.3 million) and other items ($0.9 million). In the first six months of 2013, nine of the k campuses were closed.

In the second quarter and first six months of 2013, higher education revenue declined 6% and 9%, respectively, due largely to declines in average enrollments that reflect weaker market demand over the past year and the impact of campuses in the process of closing. These declines were partially by a revenue increase arising from trial period modifications and process improvements.

KHE operating income increased significantly in the second quarter and first six months of 2013, due largely to expense reductions associated with lov enrollments and recent restructuring efforts, partially offset by lower revenue and restructuring costs noted above.

New student enrollments at KHE increased 21% and 3% in the second quarter and first six months of 2013, respectively. New student enrollments we positively impacted by trial period modifications and process improvements, partially offset by the impact of closed campuses and those planned for cluthat are no longer recruiting students.

Kaplan University	45,625	48,673	4
KHE Campuses	16,157	17,615	:
	61.782	66.288

Kaplan University enrollments included 8,144, 8,819 and 8,100 campus-based students as of June 30, 2013, March 31, 2013, and June 30, 2012, respectively.

Kaplan University and KHE Campuses enrollments at June 30, 2013 and 2012, by degree and certificate programs, are as follows:

	As of Ju	ne 30,
	2013	2012
Certificate	21.7 %	2
Associate's	30.5 %	2
Bachelor's	33.1 %	3
Master's	14.7 %	1
	100.0 %	10

Kaplan Test Preparation (KTP) includes Kaplan's standardized test preparation and tutoring offerings. KTP revenue increased 7% and 8% for the secc quarter and first six months of 2013, respectively. Enrollment increased 2% and 1% for the second quarter and first six months of 2013, respectively, d by strength in pre-college, nursing and bar review programs, offset by declines in graduate programs. KTP operating results improved in the first six m of 2013 due largely to increased revenues.

Kaplan International includes English-language programs and postsecondary education and professional training businesses outside the United State: Kaplan International revenue increased 5% and 6% in the second quarter and first six months of 2013, respectively, due to enrollment growth in the pathways, English-language and Singapore higher education programs. Kaplan International operating income declined in the second quarter and first months of 2013 due to restructuring costs in Australia and reduced earnings in Europe, partially offset by strong results in Singapore. In the second qu of 2012, International results benefited from a net $1.9 million adjustment that resulted from a favorable adjustment to certain items recorded in prior periods. In the second quarter and first six months of 2013, restructuring costs totaled $2.3 million and $2.6 million, respectively, in Australia, where K_k has been consolidating and restructuring its businesses to optimize operations; such costs are largely made up of severance costs and other expense teach-out students for certain programs that are being eliminated.

Corporate represents unallocated expenses of Kaplan, Inc.'s corporate office, other minor businesses and shared activities.

Cable Television

Cable television division revenue increased 5% in the second quarter of 2013 to $204.6 million, from $195.6 million for the second quarter of 2012; for first six months of 2013, revenue increased 5% to $404.7 million, from $385.8 million in the same period of 2012. The revenue increase for the first six months of 2013 is due to recent rate increases for many subscribers, growth in commercial sales and a reduction in promotional discounts. The increa was partially offset by a decline in basic video subscribers, as the cable division focuses its efforts on churn reduction and retention of its high-value subscribers.

Cable television division operating income increased 16% to $44.7 million, from $38.4 million in the second quarter of 2012; for the first six months of 2 operating income increased 14% to $81.3 million, from $71.2 million for the first six months of 2012. The division's operating income improved due to increased revenues and reductions in labor costs and bad debt expense, partially offset by higher programming and depreciation costs.

At June 30, 2013, Primary Service Units (PSUs) were down 3% from the prior year due to a decline in basic video subscribers. A summary of PSUs is follows:

	As of June	30,
	2013	2012
Basic video	575,762	6
High-speed data	464,292	40
Telephony	185,380	1
	1,225,434	1,2

In addition to the results reported in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) included in this press relea the Company has provided information regarding income from continuing operations, excluding certain items described below, reconciled to the most directly comparable GAAP measures. Management believes these non-GAAP measures, when read in conjunction with the Company's GAAP financia provide useful information to investors by offering:

§ the ability to make meaningful period-to-period comparisons of the Company's ongoing results;

§ the ability to identify trends in the Company's underlying business; and

§ a better understanding of how management plans and measures the Company's underlying business.

Income from continuing operations, excluding certain items, should not be considered substitutes or alternatives to computations calculated in accorda with and required by GAAP. These non-GAAP financial measures should be read only in conjunction with financial information presented on a GAAP t

The following table reconciles the non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures:
